POETICA DELLA PELLE

THE POETICS OF THE LEATHER

Nell'apprestarmi a celebrare il lavoro Rivolta dalle origini a oggi con questo catalogo, mi sono chiesto da dove cominciare. La storia con tutte le sue tappe e le trasformazioni? La filosofia che ha guidato ogni nostra azione, ogni nostra creazione? La famiglia che è alla base del concetto stesso di essere azienda rispettosa e solidale? Ebbene, devo ammettere che non sapevo quale di questi argomenti potesse esprimere compiutamente ciò che nella mia testa si manifestava in forma magmatica, accavallandosi in pensieri, ricordi e valori che pretendevano tutti di essere menzionati come primi. Stavo per lasciarmi andare e convincermi che una scaletta classica, scandita da date, filosofia e lavoro potesse essere sufficiente a esprimere un perché e una ragione. Eppure, sentivo che Rivolta era qualcosa di diverso che la sua vita meritava una narrazione fuori dall'ordinario. I suoi divani, le sue poltrone, le sedie, gli arredi, non erano diversi, unici? Ho preso delle fotografie che ritraevano le collezioni di diversi anni fa che avrebbero fatto parte della monografia, nel meravigliarmi di quegli oggetti, quasi fosse la prima volta che li vedessi, accarezzando quelle figure come fossero reali, i miei occhi si sono fermati a osservare la mia mano, la mia pelle su quelle pelli e ho capito improvvisamente quanto la storia mia e della mia famiglia fosse intimamente e organicamente legata a ciascuno di quei prodotti. Avevamo tutti la stessa pelle.

As I set out to celebrate Rivolta's work from its origins to the present day with this catalogue, I asked myself where to begin. With its history, with all its milestones and transformations? With the philosophy that has guided every one of our actions, every one of our creations? Or with the family that lies at the very heart of what it means to be a respectful and supportive company?

I must admit that I did not know which of these themes could fully express what was taking shape in my mind in such a molten, overlapping form—thoughts, memories, and values all vying to be mentioned first. I was about to give in and convince myself that a traditional outline, marked by dates, philosophy, and work, would be enough to convey a purpose and a reason. And yet I felt that Rivolta was something different, that its life deserved a narrative out of the ordinary. Were not its sofas, armchairs, chairs, and furnishings distinctive, unique?

I picked up photographs portraying collections from many years ago that were to be included in the monograph. As I marveled at those objects, almost as if I were seeing them for the first time, gently tracing their forms as though they were real, my eyes came to rest on my hand—my skin upon that leather. And suddenly I understood how intimately and organically my own story, and that of my family, was bound to each of those products.

We all shared the same skin.

SENZA TEMPO

TIMELESS

A questo punto, guardando le immagini che rappresentano tutto il nostro lavoro o perlomeno la parte significativa, ripercorrendo la memoria, non posso non considerare quante vite, stili, mode, siano passate attraverso i nostri prodotti. Quanta gente, la più diversa, si sia accomodata, abbia parlato, riso e condiviso il proprio tempo e quanto esso contasse e conta per loro. Non posso non considerare il cambiamento dei tempi, di come le mani debbano saper gestire la tecnologia, l'intelligenza artificiale ed essere loro per prime a stringere con vigore queste altre mani, fondendo industria e artigianato in modo indissolubile e rispettoso. Ora guardo le immagini dei nostri prodotti e mi emoziono nel vedere come essi vivano attraverso il tempo. Il mondo mi affascina e non credo esista un solo divano che non riporti sulla sua pelle ciò che la vita meravigliosa ha segnato sulla mia e quella della nostra famiglia. E questo nostro cammino ci ha condotto a guardare gli ambienti e le necessità dell'abitare con occhi che hanno imparato ad accettare e ad amare altri orizzonti e paesaggi e permesso alle mani di esplorare altre trame, tessute con maestria. E ci ha inorgogliato vedere realizzato ancora del bello poiché dalla bellezza nasce armonia e benessere che poi è la vera essenza della casa e degli spazi dove si lavora e si vive la vita. Ecco, ora guardo le mie mani e vedo quelle delle mie figlie e so che dietro una passione è nato un amore grande, rappresentato da uno stile che piace a tante altre persone che magari hanno idee e progetti diversi che vogliono sviluppare e condividere con noi. E questo mi gratifica e rasserena. Spero che quanto scritto sia stato il giusto modo di presentare la prima monografia Rivolta e se guardo le mie mani, esse mi dicono di sì. Ringrazio il mio lavoro per avermi concesso tutto questo.

At this point, as I look at the images that represent all our work—or at least its most significant part—and retrace the thread of memory, I cannot help but reflect on how many lives, styles, and fashions have passed through our products. How many different people have sat down, talked, laughed, and shared their time on them—and how much that time mattered, and still matters, to them. I cannot help but consider how times have changed, how hands must now be able to master technology and artificial intelligence, and be the first to grasp these new tools firmly—bringing together industry and craftsmanship in an inseparable and respectful way. Now, as I look at the images of our products, I am moved to see how they live on through time. The world fascinates me, and I do not believe there is a single sofa that does not carry on its surface the marks that this wonderful life has left on mine and on that of our family. Our journey has led us to observe living spaces and the needs of dwelling with eyes that have learned to embrace and love new horizons and landscapes, allowing our hands to explore new textures, masterfully woven. It has filled us with pride to see beauty take shape once again, because from beauty comes harmony and well-being— and that is the true essence of a home, and of the spaces where we work and live our lives. Now I look at my hands and see those of my daughters, and I know that behind a passion a great love has grown—expressed in a style that resonates with many other people, who may have different ideas and projects they wish to develop and share with us. And this brings me both gratification and peace. I hope these words have been the right way to introduce the first Rivolta monograph. When I look at my hands, they tell me they have. I thank my work for having granted me all of this.

LOFT MILANO

La casa va toccata per poterla vivere. L'abitare necessita di interazioni fisiche con la geometria dei volumi e la preziosità dei materiali. Il contatto è condivisione e nascita di un'emozione.

The home must be touched to be truly lived. Living requires physical interaction with the geometry of volumes and the richness of materials. Touch is both sharing and the birth of an emotion.

DARK HOUSE

Bisogna saper ascoltare la casa. Il suo linguaggio è espressione del nostro piacere e della consapevolezza di un luogo insostituibile.

One must know how to listen to the home. Its language expresses our pleasure and the awareness of a place that is truly irreplaceable.

CUT
lettone / day bed | L/W 444 cm · P/D 124 cm · H 40 cm

Abbiamo approfondito e confermato la nostra attitudine per la sartorialità sviluppando il tema del tessuto secondo un linguaggio pluri espressivo e combinato con il mondo della pelle. Atmosfere soft delineano i nuovi confini dei materiali naturali come il velluto e il cotone, vestendo la casa di cromie silenziose.

We have built upon a proven flair for tailoring, exploring the theme of fabric through a multifaceted language that is combined with the universe of leather. A gentle mood traces new boundaries for natural materials like velvet and cotton, arraying the home in a muted palette.
